Important message regarding professional beggars in front of Church

Dear St. Edward Parishioners

Thank you for your understanding our attempts to address the couple who are making brazen solicitations in front of the church on Sunday mornings. As we have advised previously, we have offered them assistance through our association with Family Assistance Ministries, which up to now, they have refused. Sadly, law enforcement reports they are part of a larger organization carrying out similar practices throughout Orange County.

The couple’s ever increasing boldness and their refusal to leave is not acceptable. We are addressing this by occasionally having private security present and working with local police.

None the less, as Christians we are all called to pray for this couple and ask the Lord to guide their hearts in a more fruitful and positive direction.

If they should return, we are suggesting that you not respond to their solicitations by giving them money. St. Edward’s clergy and staff will continue to offer them our assistance via our many ministries.

Blessings

Goodbye St. Edward Community!

This is a very difficult letter to write. Saying farewell to people you’ve grown attached to and spent the last four years with is always hard. When Fr. Brendan and I arrived in 2013 we came to this large and vibrant Parish Family replacing two priests that you had grown to love. Fr. Steve and Fr. Chris were hard acts to follow. But you all welcomed us so warmly that we both felt at home very quickly.

During the last four years I have had the privilege of celebrating Mass with you, baptizing your little ones, celebrating at your weddings, grieving with you over the loss of loved ones, being present to anoint you in sickness and praying with you for God’s forgiveness in Reconciliation. These things are very personal and intimate and every priest cannot help but feel honored to be welcomed into these joyful and sometimes painful moments of your lives.

Then the time comes when one has to pack up and move on to another community to continue the work elsewhere. It is always bittersweet to make these changes after sinking emotional roots in a place and in peoples lives. This July 1st that change is happening again for me. I will be joining the Parish of St. Hedwig’s in Los Alamitos as their Senior Priest.

As you probably know, this last year has been a difficult one for me, personally. The death of my sister in October was a hard blow to myself and my family after having seen so much hope for a complete recovery for her gradually disappear. Not long after that I developed a series of debilitating illnesses that made it more and more difficult for me to function and be of service to you. This finally culminated in my recent long absence while I and my doctors try first to diagnose and then treat this tenacious problem that has spun my world around and upside down.

Throughout this whole illness Fr. Brendan, Fr. Armando and the Parish Staff have been wonderful. With great patience they have picked up the slack for me in many ways. I have admired Fr. Brendan and his devotion to you all, and it has really broken my heart that I have not been as helpful to him in the last few months of my time here at St. Edwards as I would have liked. Nevertheless, I will always be grateful for his support and that of the rest of the Parish Staff. You have such fine priests and staff members serving you, and I hope you appreciate and respect them as much as I do.

It is frustrating for me not to be able to say goodbye to you all in person. My disability requires a lot of physical therapy and patience (not my best virtue). I fully expect to be starting slow in my next assignment but hopefully will get myself up to full steam soon, if God wills.

The people of St. Edwards will always be in my prayers, both in gratitude for my time with you and in asking the Lord to watch over you. Please keep me in your prayers and take care of each other as our loving Father so earnestly desires of all of us.

Love Always in Christ,
Fr. Dave

An Examination of Catholic Social Teaching

Catholic social teaching is a constitutive foundational—part of our Catholic faith, according to the words and actions of Pope Francis and the teachings of the U.S. Catholic Bishops. Its roots are in the Hebrew prophets who announced God’s special love for the poor and called God’s people to a covenant of love and justice. It is a teaching founded on the life and words of Jesus Christ. The following describes the second of seven themes in Catholic Social Teaching.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society—in economics and politics, in law and policy—directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

The Catholic Cemeteries of the Diocese of Orange provides a pre-need Planning Program for Catholic Families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decisions a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options.

The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.
