Goodbye St. Edward Community!

This is a very difficult letter to write. Saying farewell to people you’ve grown attached to and spent the last four years with is always hard. When Fr. Brendan and I arrived in 2013 we came to this large and vibrant Parish Family replacing two priests that you had grown to love. Fr. Steve and Fr. Chris were hard acts to follow. But you all welcomed us so warmly that we both felt at home very quickly.

During the last four years I have had the privilege of celebrating Mass with you, baptizing your little ones, celebrating at your weddings, grieving with you over the loss of loved ones, being present to anoint you in sickness and praying with you for God’s forgiveness in Reconciliation. These things are very personal and intimate and every priest cannot help but feel honored to be welcomed into these joyful and sometimes painful moments of your lives.

Then the time comes when one has to pack up and move on to another community to continue the work elsewhere. It is always bittersweet to make these changes after sinking emotional roots in a place and in peoples lives. This July 1st that change is happening again for me. I will be joining the Parish of St. Hedwig’s in Los Alamitos as their Senior Priest.

As you probably know, this last year has been a difficult one for me, personally. The death of my sister in October was a hard blow to myself and my family after having seen so much hope for a complete recovery for her gradually disappear. Not long after that I developed a series of debilitating illnesses that made it more and more difficult for me to function and be of service to you. This finally culminated in my recent long absence while I and my doctors try first to diagnose and then treat this tenacious problem that has spun my world around and upside down.

Throughout this whole illness Fr. Brendan, Fr. Armando and the Parish Staff have been wonderful. With great patience they have picked up the slack for me in many ways. I have admired Fr. Brendan and his devotion to you all, and it has really broken my heart that I have not been as helpful to him in the last few months of my time here at St. Edwards as I would have liked. Nevertheless, I will always be grateful for his support and that of the rest of the Parish Staff. You have such fine priests and staff members serving you, and I hope you appreciate and respect them as much as I do.

It is frustrating for me not to be able to say goodbye to you all in person. My disability requires a lot of physical therapy and patience (not my best virtue). I fully expect to be starting slow in my next assignment but hopefully will get myself up to full steam soon, if God wills.

The people of St. Edwards will always be in my prayers, both in gratitude for my time with you and in asking the Lord to watch over you. Please keep me in your prayers and take care of each other as our loving Father so earnestly desires of all of us.

Love Always in Christ,
Fr. Dave

An Examination of the Third Theme of Catholic Social Teaching

Catholic social teaching is deeply rooted in the Catholic tradition. Pope John Paul II wrote, “The Church’s social teaching finds its source in Sacred Scripture, beginning with the Book of Genesis and especially in the Gospel and the writings of the Apostles. From the beginning, it was part of the Church’s teaching…[It was] developed by the teaching of the Popes on the modern “social question,” beginning with the Encyclical Rerum Novarum.” The following describes the third of seven themes in Catholic Social Teaching.

Rights and Responsibilities

We are created in God’s image. As such, every person has the right to life. They also have a right to those things which preserve their dignity or quality of life: food, shelter, health care, education, and meaningful employment. Corresponding to these rights are responsibilities. Because we are created in the image of the Triune God, we must respect the rights of others and care for others according to God’s commandments and example.

Thank you, St. Edward, for Your Support of Red Cross Blood Drives

“We truly appreciate and value the Knights of Columbus and St. Edward’s support. Your June 11 blood drive in Knight Hall really helped the summer blood supply. We are not able to maintain a stable blood supply without wonderful blood drive sponsors like you ....”

Jessie Salmon, Red Cross Account Manager

Here are the results of the last two Red Cross blood drives at St. Edward and a summary of our four blood drives in 2016.

Blood drive results from June 11, 2017
Presenting Donors: 51
Power Red (PR): 8
Total Units Collected = 36 Whole Blood + 8 PR = 44 Pints

Blood Drive Summary from Feb 5, 2017
Presenting Donors: 40
Power Red (PR): 4
Total Units Collected= 24 Whole Blood + 4 PR = 28 Pints

During the four blood drives at St. Edward in 2016 we donated 148 pints of blood that have helped to save up to 444 patient lives. Around 1 out of 6 is Power Red donations.

Three people are helped from each pint of whole blood donated, and six people are helped from each double red blood (Power Red) cell donation. Power Red is a process of drawing blood into a machine that separates the red blood cells and returns the plasma back to the donor. The result of this is twice the amount of red blood cells are collected.

The St. Edward blood drives are sponsored and coordinated by the Knights of Columbus.
