Advent Week Three: Behold Joy
Deep-down joy isn’t the same as being merry or laughing with friends. It comes from a constant appreciation for all things that essentially emanate from God’s abiding presence.

"This week, make a list of joys that you are aware of on a daily basis. Sit in gratitude for each of them."
Do people see you as a joyful person? Or do you keep that hidden? Call someone who always exudes joy and thank her/him for showing you the beauty that is at the heart of all life.

Pick up a new Advent card each week until you have a complete set! Put it in a prominent place so that you don’t forget, especially during this busy season, to BEHOLD the daily pockets of light, the gifts of God’s abundant love.

Queridos amigos en Cristo,

Estoy muy agradecido por la cálida bienvenida que he experimentado en San Eduardo el Confesor. Como mencioné la semana pasada, ponemos un pie delante del otro y caminamos juntos. Ciertamente estamos poniendo tu mejor pie adelante.

Este tercer domingo de Adviento está dedicado al tema de la alegría cristiana. San Pablo nos dice en la segunda lectura de la misa: “Alégrense siempre en el Señor. Lo diré de nuevo: ¡regocijate! ’(Por cierto, esta cita se refiere al apodo de este día, domingo de Gaudete que en latín significa “regocijarse”.) ¿Podemos realmente alegrarnos siempre? Eso depende de lo que entendemos por regocijarnos. Si regocijarse significa reconocer con gratitud que Cristo, el Hijo de Dios, está en medio de nosotros, entonces ciertamente podemos regocijarnos siempre. Cristo viene a nosotros no solo el día de Navidad; Él viene a nosotros todos los días. Él viene a nosotros en los pequeños (“Aquello que hagas con el mas pequeño de mis hijos, a mi me lo haces”). Él viene a nosotros en los pobres. Él viene a nosotros cada vez que nos encontramos con otra persona que nos hace un bien, o que necesita nuestra bondad.

Mis amigos, estos son días ocupados. Es fácil volverse frenético, abrumado o simplemente agotado. Recordemos hacer tiempo cada día para reconocer las formas en que Cristo ya ha venido a nuestras vidas. Resolvamos mostrarle nuestro amor en cualquier forma que esto pueda tomar: paciencia, una sonrisa, caridad, gratitud y todas las otras cualidades maravillosas que sé que tienen.

En cuanto a mí, debo repetir que estoy agradecido más allá de las palabras por su amabilidad y espíritu acogedor, a pesar de la sorprendente forma en que he venido a ustedes. Al papa Francisco le gusta decirnos que estemos listos para ser sorprendidos por Dios. Sus bendiciones son innumerables, y me siento verdaderamente bendecido de estar aquí con ustedes. En la parte superior de esta pagina, encontrarás un poco más de información sobre mí. Lo más importante que quiero que sepan es que mi principal ambición es ser un santo (que es algo en lo que debo trabajar todos los días), y junto con eso quiero ser un buen sacerdote. Caminemos juntos el camino de la santidad; y al reconocer a Cristo en cada uno y en cada persona con la que nos encontremos, regocijémonos siempre en el Señor.

Con agradecimiento,
Padre Philip Smith

Un poco sobre mí

Nací en 1959 en Fullerton, California. Fui bautizado en St. Mary’s, donde también hice mi Primera Reconciliación y recibí mi Primera Comunión. Cuando tenía ocho años, mi familia se mudó a Dakota del Norte; Cuando tenía dieciocho años, regresé al Condado de Orange y entré al seminario con los Padres de Norbertinos. Mis primeros catorce años de sacerdocio los pasé enseñando, al igual que el ministerio de fin de semana en varias parroquias. Desde hace veinte años soy párroco a tiempo completo. Me siento verdaderamente bendecido de ser sacerdote de la Diócesis de Orange. Mi trabajo más reciente fue como vicario parroquial en la parroquia San Columbano en Garden Grove.

Cuando tengo tiempo libre, disfruto de la lectura, la música (tocar el piano, componer e ir a conciertos) y una película ocasional. Me encanta viajar cuando se presenta la oportunidad. También me gusta pasar tiempo con amigos, y estoy ansioso por hacer nuevos amigos aquí en San Eduardo el Confesor y San Felipe de Jesús.
Dear friends in Christ,

I am so grateful for the warm welcome I have experienced at St. Edward the Confessor. As I mentioned last week, we put one foot in front of the other and we walk. You are certainly putting your best foot forward.

This Third Sunday of Advent is dedicated to the theme of Christian joy. St. Paul tells us in the second reading of the Mass, “Rejoice in the Lord always. I shall say it again: rejoice!” (Incidentally, this quotation gives us the nickname of this day, Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete is Latin for “rejoice.”) Can we really rejoice always? That depends on what we mean by rejoicing. If rejoicing means recognizing with gratitude that Christ, the Son of God, is in our midst, then indeed we can rejoice always. Christ comes to us not only on Christmas day; he comes to us every day. He comes to us in the little ones (“Whatever you do to them, you do to me”). He comes to us in the poor. He comes to us anytime we encounter another person who does good to us, or who needs our goodness.

My friends, these are busy days. It's easy to become frantic, overwhelmed, or just frazzled. Let's remember to make time each day to recognize the ways in which Christ has already come into our lives. Let's resolve to show him our love in whatever form this might take: patience, a smile, charity, gratitude, and all of the other wonderful qualities I know you have.

As for me, I must repeat that I am grateful beyond words for your kindness and welcoming spirit, in spite of the surprising way in which I came to you. Pope Francis likes to tell us to be ready to be surprised by God. His blessings are without number, and I feel truly blessed to be here with you. Below you will find a little more information about me. The most important thing I want you to know is that my main ambition is to be a saint (which is something I must work on every day), and along with that I want to be a good priest. Let's walk the path of holiness together; and as we recognize Christ in each other and in every person we meet, let’s rejoice in the Lord always.

Gratefully yours,
Fr. Philip Smith

A Little about Me

I was born in 1959 in Fullerton, California. I was baptized at St. Mary's, where I also made my First Reconciliation and received my First Communion. When I was eight years old, my family moved to North Dakota; when I was eighteen, I returned to Orange County and entered the seminary with the Norbertine Fathers. My first fourteen years of priesthood were spent teaching, along with weekend ministry in various parishes. For twenty years now I have been a full-time parish priest. I feel truly blessed to be a priest of the Diocese of Orange. My most recent assignment was as a parochial vicar at St. Columban parish in Garden Grove.

When I have free time, I enjoy reading, music (playing piano, composing, and going to concerts), and an occasional movie. I love to travel when the opportunity presents itself. I also enjoy spending time with friends, and I am eager to make new friends here at St. Edward the Confessor & San Felipe de Jesus.

With heavy hearts, we announce that Father Chris Heath has experienced the loss of his mother, Bonnie Heath, who passed away on Thanksgiving, and his brother, Jeff Heath, the following day. The funerals will take place at his family’s home parish where Mrs. Heath was involved as a sacristan and bereavement minister. Many of you remember Father Chris from his time here and we are certain he and his family would appreciate your prayers and support. Support in the form of gift cards for restaurants, coffee, and gas will be very helpful to Father Chris and his family.

Please contact Jennifer Clark, Director of Parish Life and Faith, who can answer questions and will pass along your prayers and donations to Father Chris.

Men’s Retreat
Theme this Year:
Be not Anxious!
Living in the Peace of Christ
January 25, 26, & 27 2019

The St. Edward the Confessor retreat for men will be held at Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center on the weekend of January 25, 26 & 27.

Join your fellow parishioners for this weekend of spiritual enrichment and growth. Many men who have attended in the past repeat each year. Ask them why they keep coming back. They will tell you that there is nothing else like the peace they “feel”. Come join us, seek peace, turn the craziness of everyday life off for a few hours and RECHARGE!

The retreat begins Friday evening with a buffet dinner and concludes at noon on Sunday. The requested donation is $250. No one is turned away if they cannot pay.

You can sign up online at www.materdolorosa.org or by contacting
Retreat captain, Rob Wagner

The advent season is upon us and our St. Edward community is anxiously awaiting the arrival of Baby Jesus by participating in a number of festive activities.

The preschool, lower and upper schools each host their own Christmas pageants in the church where they sing holiday carols and reenact the nativity and the birth of our Savior. In the classrooms, each grade participates in traditional age-appropriate activities that are incorporated into their curriculum. To enrich their study of Charles Dickens’ “The Christmas Carol,” they see the South Coast Repertory’s production of this seasonal play and later produce their own classroom performance. In second grade, as part of their holiday and cultural tradition unit, they practice the Feast of St. Nicholas tradition and leave their shoes out on December 6 in hopes they are filled with small treats. In first grade, St. Nicholas letters arrive in an ice-crusted envelope from the North Pole as part of a special Christmas party. And, on the last day before break, the Capistrano Ballet performs the Nutcracker with the preschoolers.

In addition to classroom activities, the entire Monarch community participates in a Christmas stewardship project for Casa Teresa. Each classroom adopted an expectant mom, providing her with all the necessities for her and her baby.
