Recent studies have shown that one of the most significant factors contributing to employee happiness is one’s relationship with co-workers. Even employees who reported a negative relationship with their direct supervisor but a positive relationship with co-workers reported had a high level of overall happiness.

Perhaps today’s gospel parable of the landowner hiring laborers to work in his vineyard was on St. Paul’s mind when he wrote “we are co-workers in God's service; you are God’s field, God’s building” (1 Cor 3:9). What an honor, joy and responsibility for each of us to be called by God to work with Him in fulfilling his mission of announcing the reign of God and transforming the world in the light of Christ.

All of the baptized are called to work toward the transformation of the world. Most do this by working in the secular realm…others do so on a limited and voluntary basis: for example, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, readers, choir members, catechists, pastoral council members, visitors to the sick and needy, and those who serve in programs such as sacramental preparation, youth ministry, including ministry with people with disabilities, and ministries of charity and justice. (Co-Workers in the Vineyard of the Lord, U.S.C.C.B., 2005)

How are you living out your call to be a “co-worker in God’s service” in the secular world as well as in your parish? On this Catechetical Sunday, we thank and bless those of our parish who have responded to God’s call to work with Him in the ministry of teaching.

Not only has God called us to work with him; he has also called us to work with one another. St. Paul called his fellow Christians “my co-workers in Christ Jesus” (Rom 16:3-16). I, too, call you my co-workers and rely on your help, no less than St. Paul did, in sharing in the work of serving God and others through the sharing of your time, talents and treasure. In God’s house, there is work for both new and long-time parishioners as well as the young and the old.

In today’s parable, the landowner found people standing around and asked them “Why do you stand here idle all day?” They answered, “Because no one has hired us.” He said to them, “You too go into my vineyard.” Consider yourself hired! If you are looking for a way to use your God-given time, talents and treasure please contact me or the Director of Parish Ministries, Joan Fleming, at jfleming@stedward.com or 949-542-4311.

The most significant factor that will contribute to your happiness is responding to God’s generous invitation to work with him and others in transforming the world in the light of Christ.

Your co-worker in Christ Jesus,

Fr. Brendan

Llame a la oficina de San Eduardo el Confesor de Lunes a Viernes de 8 a.m. – 4 p.m. para hablar con: Millie Estrada

Tel. 949/496-1307
In 2012, our former pastor, Fr. Steve Sallot, hired a liturgical consultant and formed a committee of staff members and parishioners to discuss options for renovating the church. Following the recommendation of our parish pastoral council and the finance council, I have asked Bishop Vann for permission to pursue the renovation of the church this winter. If the bishop allows us to proceed a proposal will be prepared under the guidance of the diocesan Design and Renovation Committee and the Office of Construction Management.

We are in the beginning stages of the process and will keep you posted on the progress.

Although St. Edward the Confessor Church was founded in 1950 in Capo Beach, the current church was dedicated on December 11, 1994. The church has served us very well over these twenty years. Consider the fact that we currently celebrate over 900 Masses, 250 baptisms, 100 weddings, 400 First Communions, 300 Confirmations, and 70 funerals every year. In addition, the church sponsors concerts, hosts school events, classes and retreats throughout the year. After twenty years of heavy use, it’s time for us to reinvest in our beautiful church.

FINANCE COUNCIL
CONSULTATIVE BODY TO PASTOR
Applications being accepted

Members of the Parish Finance Council will be chosen based on demonstrable skills or expertise in management and/or finance. We are specifically looking for someone in the legal and/or financial planning profession. If you are interested, or know of someone who would be a qualified candidate, please contact Fr. Brendan at bmanson@stedward.com or Barbara Belavic at bbelavic@stedward.com.

The Finance Council is a consultative body which works closely with the pastor, who is accountable to the diocesan bishop for the administration and stewardship of the temporal goods of the parish. The pastor, according to Canon Law, has among his responsibilities, the responsibility for parish financial and temporal management. While the Parish Finance Council does not have decision making authority, consultation is at the heart of the decision-making process – sharing information, listening, contributing to the discussion, and promoting consensus.

MEMBERSHIP
The Parish Finance Council is about the life of a community of faith and, as such, its members should be members of that community of faith and should have a love for the Church and its mission and develop a thorough understanding of the parish’s mission, goals, people and other resources. As in other matters, the Pastor may use his discretion in the selection of qualified members from the parish community.

TERMS
Each Finance Council member shall serve a three-year term, commencing on the first day of their appointment to the Finance Council by the Pastor. All members may be appointed to succeed themselves, but shall serve no more than two (2) full consecutive terms or six (6) years whichever comes first, and shall not then be eligible for reappointment until an interval of at least one (1) year.

MEETING PROTOCOLS
Meetings are currently scheduled 10 months a year on the last Monday of each month September-June. Since the purpose of the Parish Finance Council is to provide advice and support to the pastor, the pastor should be present at the Parish Finance Council meetings.

† Two Hearts Prayer Group

Circle of Praise Prayer Group

The Circle of Praise Prayer Group is a charismatic prayer group that was formed 33 years ago at St. Edward the Confessor Church. First and foremost our focus is on praising God in prayer and song and being led by the Holy Spirit to contemplative and intercessory prayer. We intercede for the needs of our families, our priests, our parish and our world.

We welcome you to join us every Wednesday after the 8:15 a.m. Mass in the Church Cry Room for 1 1/2 hours of joy-filled prayer.

Two Hearts Prayer Group

In the Two Hearts Prayer Group we are dedicated and consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. We pray the Rosary and the Chaplet of Mercy interceding for the many needs of the world.

We meet the first Friday of every month in the Pieta room after the 8:15 a.m. Mass

Fr. Dave’s Bible Study

Starting Thursday, October 2nd

Fr. David will begin a six week lecture series on St. Paul’s Letter to the Philippians. The presentations will be held in the Church for six consecutive Thursday nights

Oct. 2nd - Nov. 6th from 7 pm - 9 pm.

Bring a Catholic Bible to follow along (preferably a New American Version). All are welcome. Paul’s letter to the Philippians is often called “The Epistle of Joy.” It is considered by many to be his most beautiful letter, depicting a true ‘pastor’s heart’ and a ‘father’s pride’ in a community that seems to have truly taken the Gospel message that Paul left them as “words to live by.”
