Lent: It's about Transformation

Here we go again: Lent, a time in the liturgical year when we pray, fast and give alms. Some observe Lent as an endurance test to see if they can give something up 40 days. The most popular things that people give up for Lent are chocolate, swearing, alcohol, soda, social networking, sweets, and fast food.

But Lent isn’t about endurance or even following traditions, it's about transformation. For Christians, the word transformation is about an inward change that takes place in our being as we feed on Christ as our spiritual Food and Drink. As we are transformed more deeply into the likeness of Christ on the inside, we begin to express Christ more and more in our daily life through our words and actions.

Lent is a powerful time of grace when we choose particular forms of prayer, fasting, almsgiving that bring us closer to God and lead us further on our spiritual journey. Because each of us has a unique relationship with God and is at a different place on our spiritual journey, what we do for Lent should also be unique.

Prayer: Set aside a fixed time each day and talk to God in your own words.

Fasting: What is getting in your way from getting closer to God? Are you too busy, harboring a grudge, holding on to a sin or a bad habit? Give that up for Lent.

Almsgiving: Our relationship with God is intrinsically linked to our relationship with others, particularly the spiritually and materially poor. Give alms by choosing one person or a group of people that you are going to serve this Lent.

Do something different for Lent this year so that after the 40 days of Lent you’ll be in a different place, a place closer to God where your peace and joy will increase. Allow these three practices to transform your heart this Lent so that you are not just worshiping God but following Him, day by day. Lent: it’s about transformation.
Cuaresma: Se trata de una Transformación

Aquí vamos de nuevo: la Cuaresma, es un tiempo en el año litúrgico cuando oramos, ayunamos y damos ofrendas. Algunos observar la Cuaresma como una prueba de resistencia para ver si se puede renunciar a algo por 40 días. Las cosas más populares que la gente renuncia en el tiempo de Cuaresma es el chocolate, no decir malas palabras, el alcohol, los refrescos, las redes sociales, dulces y comida rápida.

La Cuaresma no se trata de resistencia solamente, ni de seguir tradiciones, se trata de una transformación interna. Para los cristianos, la palabra transformación quiere decir un cambio interno en nuestro ser al nosotros alimentarnos de Cristo como comida y bebida espiritual. Al ser transformados más profundamente somos semejantes a Cristo interiormente, comenzamos a imitar a Cristo cada vez más en nuestra vida diaria a través de nuestras palabras y acciones.

La Cuaresma es un gran tiempo de gracia al elegir diferentes formas de oración, de ayuno, ofrenda que nos acercan a mas a Dios y nos lleva más lejos a nuestro viaje espiritual. Porque cada uno de nosotros tiene una relación única con Dios y está en un lugar diferente en su camino espiritual, así es que lo que hagamos para la Cuaresma también tiene que ser único.

Oración: Dedique un tiempo fijo cada día para hablar con Dios con sus propias palabras.

Ayuno: ¿Qué está en su camino que le impide acercarse a Dios? ¿Está demasiado ocupado, tiene algún rencor, se aferra a un pecado o un mal hábito? Renuncie a eso en la Cuaresma.

Ofrenda: Nuestra relación con Dios está íntimamente ligada a nuestra relación con los demás, sobre todo los que están espiritualmente y materialmente pobres. De una ofrenda a una sola persona o a un grupo de personas que usted va a servir en esta Cuaresma. Hacer algo diferente para la Cuaresma de este año, así que después de los 40 días de Cuaresma va a estar en un lugar diferente, un lugar más cerca de Dios, donde su paz y alegría se incrementará. Permita que estas tres prácticas transformen su corazón en esta Cuaresma para usted no solo adore a Dios, si no que siga a Dios, día a día. Cuaresma: se trata de una transformación.
Prayer Peace Unity

When: Friday, Feb. 27th at 6:30 PM
Where: The “Parish Tent”
Why: To pray, praise and give support to our parish and priests.
Lent is a wonderful time to reflect!
A Lent-friendly supper of fish tacos and fish sandwiches will be served immediately following the service!
Cost: Love Offering

Volunteers Needed

St. Edward parishioners are invited to help staff the upcoming Catholic Charities of Orange County workshops to process migrant applicants for the Deferred Action for Parent Accountability (DAPA) and Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) federal programs. These programs are part of a series of Presidential Executive Actions to crack down on illegal immigration at our borders, prioritize deporting felons (not families), and require certain undocumented immigrants to pass a criminal background check and pay taxes in order to temporarily stay in the U.S. without fear of deportation.

St. Edward’s will serve as a satellite center for this diocesan activity. Part of our parish mission to be a House of Prayer / House of the Poor, volunteers – English-speaking and bilingual – are needed for tasks ranging from greeting and welcoming applicants to logistics and assisting with paperwork. A two-hour training session will be held within the next few weeks. Applicant workshops will begin during March most likely on Saturdays and Wednesdays. To volunteer for this important Christian service, please contact Josie at (949) 493-8918.
