Our Three Mothers

On this Mother’s Day, we stop to express our love and gratitude and pray for our mothers who have given us life and who continually nourish it with untiring love. I am speaking of our three Mothers: Our natural mothers, Mother Mary, and our Mother, the church.

All three mothers are God-given gifts through which we receive the love of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We received our physical life through our natural mothers, are continually guided and protected by Mary, our heavenly Mother, and given divine life through our Mother, the Church. Each mother in her own way, gives life, nourishes it, heals us of wounds, worries about us, and loves us even when we’re hard to love.

To our three mothers we say: I love you. Thank you.
(In case you’re interested in becoming a mother, please see the “Wanted Ad” below)

Congratulations to St. Edward the Confessor Parish School’s Academic Decathlon team which took first place overall at the state competition held in Sacramento on April 17. The ten schools competing won their respective diocesan competitions in early March.

In addition to the first-place overall, the team came in 2nd in both the Logic Quiz and Super Quiz. The team also performed well in the individual events: Ryan Barta (3rd place Social Studies); Kate Cerniglia (5th place Fine Arts); Claire Crafts (1st place Religion); Rich Meyer (4th place English); Gavin Rissling (1st place Literature); Meagan Rowlett (1st place and a perfect score in Current Events); Nicky Rowlett (2nd place Math); Matthew Sloss (4th place Science).
