All Saints and All Souls Days: A Feast of Community

On the solemnities of All Saints and All Souls we are reminded of our unbreakable bond with the living and the deceased. As St. Luke tells us, “[D] is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.” (Lk 20:38)

Those in heaven are called saints, whether they were canonized or not. However, the church canonizes certain individuals who lived lives of heroic faith and charity. The saints are models of holiness for us to imitate, but even more, they intercede for us before God to guide and strengthen us on our journey until we, too, reach heaven. Last Friday, St. Joseph Radio host Rick Howick gave us a wonderful presentation on our patron saint, Edward the Confessor. As we focus on being a House of Prayer, let us strengthen our bond of friendship with the saints by learning about them, imitating them, and praying for their intercession.

All Souls Day (or Día de Los Muertos) commemorates the souls of the faithful departed who are assured of heaven, but are being purified from their sins in purgatory. “The Church in its pilgrim members from the very earliest days of the Christian religion has honored with great respect the memory of the dead; and because it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins she offers her suffrages for them.” (cf. 2 Macc 12:45) Our prayer for them is capable not only of helping them, but also of making their intercession for us effective. (Catechism #958)

As a House of Prayer, let us foster our bond of friendship with all of the departed, particularly our family members and parishioners. Please consider coming to our We Remember Mass this Saturday, November 7th, at 10 a.m. as we pray for the deceased of our parish and their families.

Día de Todos los Santos y Todos los Fieles Difuntos; Una Fiesta en Comunidad

En las solemnidades de Todos los Santos y los Fieles Difuntos nos recuerda el vínculo indisoluble con los vivos y los difuntos. Como San Lucas nos dice: “[Dios] no es el Dios de los muertos, sino de vivos, porque para él todos viven.” (Lucas 20:38)

Los que están en el cielo son llamados santos, si fueron canonizados o no. Sin embargo, la Iglesia canoniza a ciertos individuos que vivieron vidas de fe heroicas y de caridad. Los santos son modelos de santidad para que imitemos, pero aún más, interceden por nosotros ante Dios para guiarlos y fortalecernos en nuestro camino hasta que nosotros, también, alcancemos el cielo. El viernes pasado, el conductor Rick Howick de la Radio de Saint Joseph nos dio una presentación maravillosa de San Eduardo el Confesor. A medida que nos enfocamos en ser una casa de oración, vamos a fortalecer nuestros lazos de amistad con los santos por aprender acerca de ellos, imitarlos, y orar por su intercesión.

Día de los Fieles Difuntos (o Día de Los Muertos) conmemoramos las almas de los fieles difuntos que tiene seguro el cielo, pero que están siendo purificados de sus pecados en el purgatorio. “La Iglesia militante desde los prime-ros días de la religión cristiana ha honrado con gran respeto la memoria de los difuntos; es santo y necesario orar por los muertos para que sean libres de sus pecados ella ofrece sus sufragios por ellos.” (cf. 2 Macabeos 12:45) Nuestra oración por ellos es capaz no sólo de ayudarlos, sino también de hacer que su intercesión por nosotros sea efectiva. (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica #958)

Como Casa de Oración, vamos a fomentar nuestro vínculo de amistad con todos los difuntos, en particular los miembros de nuestra familia y feligreses. Acompáñenos a la misa este sábado, 7 de Noviembre, a las 10 a.m. donde recordaremos a todos nuestros amados difuntos de la parroquia y sus familias.

Craft Fair
November 22

On Sunday, November 22, 2015, volunteers for Concern America will be here at St. Edward the Confessor Church with a Craft Sale featuring unique quality handcrafts that provide us with the opportunity to purchase conscientiously. The gifts we find for special events, holidays, or to brighten our own homes are an exchange of caring with impoverished communities in developing countries. This year we have many new crafts from Bangladesh, El Salvador Guatemala and Mexico. Inspired by nature, these beautifully handcrafted textiles, ceramics and wood products, honor indigenous traditions, and were selected to be reminders that when a Concern America product is purchased we are providing a source of income to materially poor communities; promoting human scale endeavors; eco-friendly work patterns; and fair working conditions. Concern America is an international development and refugee aid organization based in Santa Ana, CA. (714) 953-8575. You may view of selection of their crafts on their web site: www.concernamerica.org

Celebrating an anniversary or other special occasion, remembering a loved one, or just want a way to make our church more beautiful? Starting the weekend of November 5th you may sponsor flower arrangements in the Sanctuary. There will be two bouquets placed on the pedestals in the sanctuary for weekend masses. We have made arrangements with a local florist, McCool Flowers to have a bouquets delivered weekly to the church. Bouquets can be sponsored for $60.00 each and we will acknowledge your donation in the bulletin. Please go to the church office to reserve your date and make payment for the flowers, we will do the rest!

All Souls Day, November 2
Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead)

From pre-Columbian times, El Día de los Muertos, the Day of the Dead has been celebrated in Mexico, and other Latin countries. This is a very special ritual, since it is the day in which the living remember their departed relatives. Sometimes, when people of other cultures hear for the first time about the celebration of the Day of the Dead, they mistakenly think it must be gruesome, terrifying, scary, ugly and sad. Nothing is further from the truth, Day of the Dead is a beautiful ritual in which people happily and lovingly remember their loved relatives that have died. Much like when we go to a graveyard to leave some lovely flowers on a tomb of a relative.

YOU ARE INVITED TO LEAVE THE NAMES OF YOUR DECEASED FAMILY MEMBERS AND LOVED ONES WRITTEN ON ONE OF THE PAPER STARS LOCATED ON THE ALTAR OF THE DEAD.
