Called & Gifted - “Unwrapping the Gift”

In addition to celebrating the second Sunday of Advent today, we also commemorate the feast day of St. Nicholas, who is famously associated with gifts. This holy season of Advent is a wonderful opportunity to discover, unwrap, and share our spiritual gifts, also referred to as charisms. At Baptism and Confirmation, God in all His graciousness grants each and every one of us spiritual gifts. (1 Cor 12:4-11) What a joy it is to receive a gift, especially from God!

Do you know what particular charisms God has given to you? If not, come and discover them by attending the Called & Gifted Workshop at St. Edward in Knight Hall on Saturday, January 16. Even if you are aware of your God-given charisms, I encourage you to attend because you will learn at a deeper level how those charisms can work best in your service to others. You might want to consider bringing a friend or family member to this workshop, or giving the gift of this workshop to someone special.

One of the things that I love about our charisms is that they are proof that we have been individually “touched” and called by God. They are also the tools we need to accomplish our unique mission for God. Unlike other gifts, spiritual charisms are not so much given to us as our possessions but rather, they are God’s gifts which He shares with us to receive with gratitude, cultivate, and share with joyful hearts as stewards.

You will find great joy in discovering and sharing the spiritual gifts God has entrusted to you. Please mark your calendar for the Called & Gifted Workshop on January 16. There is more information on the next page of this bulletin, including how to register.

I think you may discover that your best Christmas gift is not under the tree, but is waiting to be unwrapped by you at this workshop.

Fr. Brendan
Pastor

MESSAGE FROM DEACON AL SCADUTO ABOUT THE UGANDA TRIP

Thank you for your prayers while Fr. Brendan and I were visiting the Missionaries of the Poor (MOP) and Fr. Achilles parish in Kampala, Uganda. We returned Tuesday evening after 22 hours of flying. We are so grateful to have gone to Africa to see and experience for ourselves the wonderful work that is being performed by both MOP and Fr. Achilles.

Everywhere we went, we were greeted with happy faces and kindness. The children are so full of joy, yet they live in shacks made of scrap materials. They greeted us with a slight bow and a "You are most welcome here". They love to shake hands and play hand clapping games, which they call hand dancing. They live on a daily diet of corn maze & hot water in the morning, maze and beans for lunch and if they are lucky they get cooked bananas for dinner (matoke) or rice. They children truly love school, some walk for miles to attend. They are taught both English and Ugandan. The adults were just as gracious as the children.

We visited the Missionaries of the Poor orphanages where they care for more than 400 children. Only a few had disabilities, the rest were normal and attended school everyday. The brothers also feed and paid for the schooling of over 600 other children who live with their parents.

We visited the clinic that was built by funding from St. Edwards which is in a village out in the "bush" about 25 to 30 miles from Kampala. Traffic and the roads are the worst I have ever experienced, it took us over 3 hours to get there. The clinic cares for those who are isolated in rural areas. Prior to the clinic, women would have to walk for miles while in labor just to get to a road where she could pay for a ride on a motorcycle to the hospital. Now they only have to walk less than a mile! The clinic is clean and simple but a wonderful asset to the village. Children are the focus of the clinic especially to address malaria which is common.

We also accompanied Fr. Achilles when he traveled deep into the slums to celebrate Mass and baptize babies. It was truly a beautiful experience.

Mass in the parish church was a joyful event, the music, the culture and the devotion of the people. Once again they walk long distances to attend Mass and wear the best they have. The choir sounded like the Mormon Tabernacle choir...they had utterly amazing voices. During the consecration the people applaud as a sign of celebration that Christ is with them. Fr. Brendan and I were truly blessed that we were able to serve at the Masses.

On the light side, it is tradition for a village to offer gifts to visitors. As per the culture, Fr. Brendan was given on two occasions 2 live chickens, 2 goats and one pig. He had a little trouble packing them in his luggage so he gave them to Fr. Achilles to benefit the children at a later time. The children might get a little meat once a week, if there is money available to buy it.

All that being said, the people were extremely kind to us even though they were very busy in preparing for the Pope’s arrival three days after we left.

Once again, thank you for your prayers.

Blessings to all,
Deacon Al

Help the Homeless
Donate a Warm Jacket or Sleeping Bag

Welcome Inn  Clothing & Sleeping Bag Drive
NEXT WEEKEND ONLY—December 12 & 13

The homeless are just that. They wear the same clothes day and night and carry their possession with them. With cold weather upon us, they need washable sleeping bags and lightweight fleece throws. The homeless in our area — who are predominately men — need warm outdoor jackets, preferably weather-proof, that are large enough to accommodate multiple layers of clothing underneath. (No dress jackets or coats, please!) The men also need: sweatshirts, long-sleeve shirts, socks (L), gloves, knit scarves, and hooded plastic ponchos.

WELCOME INN volunteers will be at St. Edward the Confessor Church
ONLY on December 12 & 13 after Masses to collect these items that they will distribute to the homeless in our area.

Brighten the Holidays for Someone Less Fortunate Here are simple ways that you and your family can share the joy of Christmas with a local poor person or family.

1. Adopt-a-Family. —All our families have been adopted but we still need gift cards for the homeless, singles, and families who didn’t register to be adopted.

2. Donate a gift card. Give joy anonymously to someone in need by donating a gift card for food (grocery stores like Ralphs or Albertsons) or for clothing or necessities (Walmart, Target, CVS).  Put your gift card in the Christian Service Gift Box in the St. Edward Parish Office by Tuesday, December 15th.

3. Donate a toy. Help bring joy to a child! Please leave an unwrapped new or hand-crafted toy in the decorated box in the vestibule of the church by Tuesday, December 15th.

May God Bless You

turn the craziness of everyday life off for a few hours and RECHARGE!

It’s been 30 years since our first graduating class! We would love to hear from you! Register online to become part of our Alumni Directory at: www.stedschool.org/apps/directory/directory_edit.jsp

Please call us or come in and see all the great changes happening at your school! Be sure to “like” our St. Edward the Confessor Parish School Alumni Facebook page and help our alumni reconnect: www.facebook.com/stedwardalumni

Also, tell us what you are doing now, send us photos to share, and let us share that news with our community at alumni@stedschool.org

We are planning an alumni event in the spring and we hope you can join us! Details will be emailed at a later date to those registered in our directory.
