Not just Another Week: It’s Holy Week

Holy Week refers to the week that begins with Palm Sunday and ends with Holy Saturday, the day before Easter. For Catholics, it is the most sacred week of the year.

“From the very beginning of Christianity it has always been devoted to a special commemoration of Christ's Passion and death through the practice of meditation, prayer, fasting, and penance. After the great persecutions, the Christian emperors of both the East and West Roman Empires issued various decrees forbidding not only amusements and games, but also regular work in trade, business, professions, and courts. The sacred days were to be spent free from worldly occupations, entirely devoted to religious exercises” (CatholicCulture.org).

Please arrange your week so that you can enter as fully as possible into the most sacred days of our faith: Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil/Easter Sunday. So holy are these days that they form a liturgical season unto themselves called the Holy Triduum. I encourage each of you to attend and participate in these powerful and beautiful liturgies.

In order for this week to be different than every other week of the year, we need to do things differently than normal. The rhythm and activities of this Holy Week should reflect the mysteries we are celebrating. The passion, death, and resurrection of our Lord. Prayer, fasting, almsgiving, silence, the Stations of the Cross, reading Scripture and attending the Triduum services are some elements that we will want to incorporate into our lives in a special way this week.

On Easter Sunday, the number of people who will attend Mass here will triple. Most of these people are CEOs (Christmas & Easter Only people). Please give them a reason to come back to church, not a reason to stay away. St. Edward the Confessor Church is not our church, it is our Father’s house and all are to be welcomed – the “regulars” as well as the visitors. Perhaps through our warm hospitality, being patient and kind to one another in the parking lot as well as in the church, and by our praying the Mass with faith and joy, they will discover the resurrected Lord here in this place and in their lives.

May this week not be just another week, but a Holy Week.

The Catholic Cemeteries of the Diocese of Orange provides a pre-need Planning Program for Catholic Families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decisions a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options. The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

For information on advance planning and the choices you have, please contact Mary Ellen Lohnes:

Turn Your TAXABLE RMD (Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.

This provision may be especially attractive for retirees who don’t need all the income from their IRA to meet current living expenses. By donating the money to your charity, you can enjoy the satisfaction of knowing that you are contributing to a worthy cause while effectively lowering your tax bill.
