Solemnity of the Body of Blood of Jesus Christ:

Q&A

What is the Holy Eucharist?
The Eucharist is a sacrament, a sacrifice, and a sacred banquet. Under the appearance of bread and wine our Savior Jesus Christ is entirely present in this sacrament: body, blood, soul and divinity. In this sacrament He offers Himself in sacrifice to the Father, and is received as spiritual nourishment.

Why is the Eucharist the center of Catholic life?
The Eucharist is the center of Catholic life precisely because Christ is the center of all our life. In this sacrament Christ gives Himself totally, that we might share His life and be bound together in His mystical body.

Do I have to go to confession before receiving to Communion?
To receive the sacrament of Communion worthily one must be a baptized Catholic in the state of grace and believe what the Church teaches about this sacrament. One conscious of having committed a mortal sin must make a sacramental confession before receiving communion. A mortal sin is any sin whose matter is grave and which has been committed willfully and with knowledge of its seriousness.

Do you have to fast before Mass?
Yes, the Church directs us to abstain from food and drink (except for water and medicine) for at least one hour before Communion.

Can you receive Communion if you are divorced?
By itself civil divorce is not an obstacle to Communion. However, in fidelity to the words of Jesus Christ—"Whoever divorces his wife and marries another, commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery"—the Church maintains that a new union cannot be recognized as valid, if the first marriage was valid. For this reason, a person who divorces and remarries cannot receive Communion unless the Church declares that a person’s prior marriage was not valid (i.e. it was nullified by the Church).

At the same time, Pope Francis reminds us that “it is important that the divorced who have entered a new union should be made to feel part of the Church. They are not excommunicated and they should not be treated as such, since they remain part of the ecclesial community.”

How do I get more out of Mass?
We will get more out of Mass if we give more of ourselves to God at Mass. Mass is a holy exchange: God not only changes bread and wine into His Body and Blood but He also wants to transform us. In order for that to happen, we need to freely and intentionally offer and unite ourselves to Christ together with the bread and wine. We give ourselves to God at Mass when we give him our personal prayers, joys, suffering, and intentions. The offering of money is also important because it is the fruit of our work and a vital source of our livelihood. Giving back to God not only reflects the fact that everything belongs to Him but it is a way of entrusting our life, our livelihood, to Him. Get more out of Mass by giving more of yourself to God at Mass. What are you bringing to God today?

Lectio – Eucharist

"The Lamb of God," "The Bread of Life," "The Body and the Blood of Christ"... these are phrases we know from the Mass. But do we understand what they mean in the greater and deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching? Acclaimed author and teacher Dr. Brant Pitre rigorously digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, through its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching. We'll discover firsthand how "this is My Body" and "this is My Blood" is an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation. An Augustine Institute production

5 Steps to Make a Better (Eternal) Life

By Father Larry Richards
Taken from KOFC "Columbia" magazine

1. Surrender
Who is in control of your life — is it you or is it God?
2. Pray Daily
Never fit God into your day; instead, build your day around God.
3. Be a Man of Love
If God is love, then his followers must be people of love.
4. Be a Man of Service
Christ says “Whoever seeks to keep his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it” (Lk 17:33) Live a life of service. You can never out give God in generosity!
5. Change the World for Christ
Bring others to Christ by praying for them, by loving them and by telling them about him.
