Jubilee Mercy and Indulgence for the Sick, Homebound and Incarcerated.

The sick, homebound and incarcerated are often in my thoughts and prayers because Jesus talks about them a lot in the Scriptures and we have many parishioners who volunteer in parish and diocesan ministries which serve them every day. Last week, many of you joined me or Fr. Armando as we celebrated the Jubilee Year at the Mission Basilica and walked through the Holy Door seeking to gain the gift of an indulgence. But what if you are physically unable to get to the Holy Door, much less walk through them? Pope Francis is thinking of you, too.

“Additionally, I am thinking of those for whom, for various reasons, it will be impossible to enter the Holy Door, particularly the sick and people who are elderly and alone, often confined to the home. For them it will be of great help to live their sickness and suffering as an experience of closeness to the Lord who in the mystery of his Passion, death and Resurrection indicates the royal road which gives meaning to pain and loneliness. Living with faith and joyful hope this moment of trial, receiving communion or attending Holy Mass and community prayer, even though the various means of communication, will be for them the means of obtaining the Jubilee Indulgence.”

“My thoughts also turn to those incarcerated, whose freedom is limited. The Jubilee Year has always constituted an opportunity for great amnesty, which is intended to include the many people who, despite deserving punishment, have become conscious of the injustice they worked and sincerely wish to re-enter society and make their honest contribution to it. May they all be touched in a tangible way by the mercy of the Father who wants to be close to those who have the greatest need of his forgiveness. They may obtain the Indulgence in the chapels of the prisons. May the gesture of directing their thought and prayer to the Father each time they cross the threshold of their cell signify for them their passage through the Holy Door, because the mercy of God is able to transform hearts, and is also able to transform bars into an experience of freedom.”

-Pope Francis, 1 September 2015

Fr. Brendan Manson

You Are Invited to Join a Small Faith-Sharing Group

It’s not good to walk alone on the spiritual journey! Let us help you get together with like-minded companions to talk about faith, study Scripture, watch a video series, or even do a service project.

Who Can Join a Small Group?
Any adults, any age - singles, married people (with children or without children), co-workers, neighbors, friends. You can choose a multi-generational group or a group specifically your age.

Ready to sign up? Need more information?
Go to: http://stedward.com/small-faith-sharing-groups-sign-up or email Liz Iorio in the Faith Formation Office: Liorio@stedward.com.

When was the last time you did something special alone together?

Most couples are busy with work and family. It seems that every moment of the day is planned and there’s never enough time to get everything done.
When was the last time you had a weekend alone?

Consider planning a weekend away just the two of you, to renew your marriage relationship.

We have 2 weekends to choose from:
Sept. 23-25 and Nov. 11-13.
Both these weekends start on Friday night and end on Sunday afternoon. They will be located at an Orange County hotel.

For more information, please contact:
John and Maggie Lee at 714-837-5136. If you prefer sign up at our website at ocwwme.org.

Beginning Experience Weekend
If you are grieving the loss of your marriage through death, divorce or separation, join us at the ProSanctity Center in Fullerton, October 7-9, 2016. A trained team leads participants through a healing and growth program. If you are ready to move through your feelings of grief, into the light of a new beginning and hope, this weekend may be for you.
Contact Kim at (714) 336-3221 or Melissa (bilingual, Spanish) at (949) 697-3352 for more information.
Early registration is encouraged.

Have you ever had a desire to get away for a few days and spend some time alone with God? Have you ever wanted to go on a retreat or wondered what it would be like to experience one? Or just have a few days rest to Renew your tired mind, body, and spirit or some time to refocus your life and priorities?

Jesus said to his disciples: “COME WAY by yourselves to secluded place and rest awhile.”

MK 6:31

Come away and rest awhile, Sounds pretty easy, but the reality of putting into practice is another story. A time of rest (particularly a retreat) gives us a God moment in the midst of our busy life to look at our past account for our present and to imagine a new and better future. This is an invitation to you to join the women of St. Edward on our week-end silent retreat in October we spend the week-end with the Carmelite Sisters at their beautiful retreat grounds in Alhambra. Consider joining us...pray about it.
