Prayer before an Election

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, Men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the Catholic tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation. This obligation is rooted in our baptismal commitment to follow Jesus Christ and to bear Christian witness in all we do. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us, “It is necessary that all participate, each according to his position and role, in promoting the common good. This obligation is inherent in the dignity of the human person. . . . As far as possible citizens should take an active part in public life” (nos. 1913-1915).

Unfortunately, politics in our country often can be a contest of powerful interests, partisan attacks, sound bites, and media hype. The Church calls for a different kind of political engagement: one shaped by the moral convictions of well-formed consciences and focused on the dignity of every human being, the pursuit of the common good, and the protection of the weak and the vulnerable.

The Catholic call to faithful citizenship affirms the importance of political participation and insists that public service is a worthy vocation. As Catholics, we should be guided more by our moral convictions than by our attachment to a political party or interest group. When necessary, our participation should help transform the party to which we belong; we should not let the party transform us in such a way that we neglect or deny fundamental moral truths.

We are called to bring together our principles and our political choices, our values and our votes, to help build a better world. (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, #13-14)

Dear Brothers in the Lord,

On Saturday, December 3 the "Dynamic Catholic Institute" will be holding a very important event entitled "Living Every Day with Passion and Purpose" at the UCI Bren Center-100 Mesa Rd. Irvine, CA. 92697. As Matthew Kelly mentions "Our mission at Dynamic Catholic is to re-energize the Catholic Church in America. We are doing it a community at a time. This even will attract people from across the Diocese and beyond."

I have met Matthew Kelly a number of times over the years and he maintains an office in the Tower of Hope on the Christ Cathedral Campus. He has been a speaker in a number of our parishes here in the Diocese. His zeal, sense of mission and love for our Faith can be a great opportunity for us as we seek now to reenergize our evangelization efforts across the Diocese later this year.

I plan to attend this event myself and certainly would encourage our parish priests, leaders and religious to take advantage of this event as the season of Advent begins.

Know of my prayer for a blessed and relaxing summer.

Gratefully yours in the Lord,

Most Reverend Kevin W. Vann, J.C.D., D.D.
Bishop of Orange
