Concern America Fair Trade Craft Fair
After Masses the weekend of November 12 & 13

On Saturday and Sunday, November 12 & 13, volunteers for Concern America will be here at St. Edward the Confessor Church with a Craft Sale featuring unique, quality handcrafts that provide us with the opportunity to purchase conscientiously. The gifts we find for special events, holidays, or to brighten our own homes are an exchange of caring with impoverished communities in developing countries. This year we have many new crafts from Bangladesh, El Salvador, Guatemala and Mexico. Inspired by nature, these beautifully handcrafted textiles, ceramics and wood products, honor indigenous traditions, and were selected to be reminders that when a Concern America product is purchased we are providing a source of income to materially poor communities; promoting human scale endeavors; eco-friendly work patterns; and fair working conditions.

Concern America, is an international development organization based in Santa Ana, CA. (714) 953-8575. You may view a selection of their crafts on their web site: www.concernamerica.org

“The right to life implies and is linked to other human rights — to the basic goods that every human person needs to live and thrive. All the life issues are connected, for erosion of respect for the life of any individual or group in society necessarily diminishes respect for all life. The moral imperative to respond to the needs of our neighbors — basic needs such as food, shelter, health care, education, and meaningful work — is universally binding on our consciences and may be legitimately fulfilled by a variety of means. Catholics must seek the best ways to respond to these needs....Above all, the common outcry, which is justly made on behalf of human rights — for example, the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture — is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination.”

The Corazon Builders from St. Edward and the Corazon organization would like to thank St. Edward parishioners for their support, both financial and labor, for this build-a-house-in-a-day project. This was our third house-build with Corazon and what a build it was! This site was on a hill which made it much more challenging than our last one.

Forty-six people provided the labor for this build: 22 of them were families of 3 to 5, with parents and teenagers! On Saturday, Sept. 24 we left on a bus from St. Edward at 5:00 a.m. and at 5:00 p.m. we handed off the keys to the family’s new free & clear home!

The family who received the keys for this house had waited 17 years and was working with Corazon in Mexico. The location of their new home was not just any address; it was next door to their daughter. Corazon and St. Edward Parish made this family’s dream come true!

If you would like to join us on our next build on Saturday, June 3, 2017, or if you have questions, please contact: Ralph Loconte: Ralph.Loconte@gmail.com (949) 351-4266 or Rob Wagner robwagner@cox.net (949) 842-2277.

The weekend starts on Friday night and ends on Sunday afternoon. It will be located at an Orange County hotel. For more information, please contact John and Maggie Lee at 714-837-5136.

Dear Brothers in the Lord,

On Saturday, December 3 the "Dynamic Catholic Institute" will be holding a very important event entitled "Living Every Day with Passion and Purpose" at the UCI Bren Center-100 Mesa Rd. Irvine, CA. 92697.

As Matthew Kelly mentions "Our mission at Dynamic Catholic is to re-energize the Catholic Church in America. We are doing it a community at a time. This even will attract people from across the Diocese and beyond."

I have met Matthew Kelly a number of times over the years and he maintains an office in the Tower of Hope on the Christ Cathedral Campus. He has been a speaker in a number of our parishes here in the Diocese. His zeal, sense of mission and love for our Faith can be a great opportunity for us as we seek now to reenergize our evangelization efforts across the Diocese later this year.

I plan to attend this event myself and certainly would encourage our parish priests, leaders and religious to take advantage of this event as the season of Advent begins.

Know of my prayer for a blessed and relaxing summer.

Gratefully yours in the Lord,

Most Reverend Kevin W. Vann, J.C.D., D.D.
Bishop of Orange
