They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” Mark 9:34-35

Ellos se quedaron callados, pues habían discutido entre sí sobre quién era el más importante de todos. Entonces se sentó, llamó a los doce y les dijo: “Si alguno quiere ser el primero, que se haga el último y el servidor de todos.” Marcos 9:34-35

MIDDLE SCHOOL PROGRAM TO BEGIN
October 7th
In service to Jesus Christ and the Community

A service-based, intergenerational experience for kids and parents, OUTLET meets twice each month, to foster a stronger relationship with Jesus through better understanding and service to the community. By studying and then living out of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, given to us by Jesus, we will strive to become better disciples and witnesses of love.

ALL MIDDLE AGE STUDENTS (grades 6-8) in the parish (including both parish school and public school) are invited to register on-line for Faith Formation classes in order to participate in this program.
Overwhelming the Darkness

As the daily news rightfully draws our attention to the sin and evil that some members of the Catholic Church have committed, it is also important to continually recognize the good that most members of faith have done and are doing every day. To recognize the good that surrounds us, the good that God and others do; is not to downplay or ignore the reality of the heinous acts of evil that are sexual abuse. Nor does recognizing the good mean to avoid taking action to stop abuse. Rather, we recognize the good that surrounds us because it too is real and we must refuse to allow the darkness to overcome the light.

Of the one billion people who identify themselves as Catholics worldwide, approximately .04% (405,100) are clergy (not including deacons). The overwhelming majority of clergy are innocent of the vile crimes that are being unveiled. Similarly, the majority of the 99.96% of the church, which consists of the laity, is also innocent of sexual abuse. However, a small percentage of such a big number is staggering and horrific. One crime of abuse is staggering and horrific.

The point? What an enormous amount of evil and harm such a small percentage of people can do! And, what an enormous amount of good the rest of us – the overwhelming majority – have done, do, and will continue to do to overwhelm the darkness. Again, recognizing the goodness will not divert us from also working to make the necessary changes to stop the crime and coverup of sexual abuse and any other abuse of trust.

Last Saturday, about 200 of your fellow parishioners joined the priests for Mass and a Holy Hour for Hope and Healing. It was a powerful time to join together as the church before the Light who is Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Human action that does not begin with divine intervention (prayer) is sure to fail. Likewise, prayer without human action (works) is dead. Last weekend, Jesus told Peter, “Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do” (Mk 8:33). To pray is to heed Jesus’ words to put on the mind of God, to think as God does.

A simple renovation of a house sometimes uncovers unexpected, costly, and discouraging problems; things that need to be repaired or completely replaced. Along those lines, things may get much worse in the Catholic Church before they get better. Please do not get discouraged. Yet, if you start to feel discouraged, please find someone trusted to talk with openly about your feelings early on – please do not wait nor let your feelings overwhelm you. While the devil attempts to hide or disguise evil, the Holy Spirit brings the darkness into the light in order to be purified. In that same vein, what can become a horrendous renovation project is also the labor and love for a beautiful house coming into being.

To transform the darkness into light, we need to spend each day in the Light by praying as individuals, families, and a parish family. Make an effort to overcome the darkness in your life by ridding yourself of sin particularly through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Fill your home and community with goodness by being active in a ministry/charity that serves others. Without any doubt, what an enormous amount of evil and harm such a small percentage of people have done! And, what an enormous amount of good the rest of us – the overwhelming majority – are going to do to overwhelm the darkness with light. Driving out darkness is the work of God and it is also our work. Jesus tells us, “You are the Light of the world” (Mt 5:14a).

I will continue to share information with you – good and bad. Please stay informed through the weekly e-newsletter called The Beacon, the bulletin (which is also included in The Beacon), the parish website, parish social media, the school weekly e-newsletter called The Post, and pre-Mass Announcements.

In Christ’s light, forever,
Rev. Brendan Manson
Pastor

Father Brendan thanks everyone for abiding by the new parking rules in effect for the parish, as well as for making an effort to drive slower and obey traffic rules. Please remember to be respectful of our neighbors and avoid parking or dropping off anyone in the neighborhoods surrounding the parish and, instead, to park only on our parish property. Thank you!

LIFT OFF TO LITERACY
Favorite Children’s Author Barney Saltzberg Visits School

The Lift Off to Literacy program is a reading incentive program for our TYKES - 5th Grade which focuses on building a love of reading and establishing positive reading habits. Run throughout the fall, Lift Off encompasses a variety of programs, including guest speakers, themed days including Star Wars Reads and Dress Like Your Favorite Book Character, and a 60-Day reading challenge. In its fifth anniversary at St. Edward, this year's theme is “Building a Culture of Literacy.” Children and their families are encouraged to engage in literacy experiences during and after school in ways that create a lifelong love of reading versus viewing it as homework or a required task.

The program kicked off on September 11 with a visit from famed children's author and illustrator Barney Saltzberg. He inspired and motivated our learners, speaking about kindness, school experiences, life as an author and illustrator, editing and the magic of storyboarding.

Altar Guild Volunteers Needed!

Altar Guild is the liturgical ministry whose volunteer members help prepare the church for the mass by performing duties such as washing the holy vessels used in the mass and tidying up areas of worship. Although the time commitment is minimal (a couple of hours once a month), our services have a significant impact on the appearance of the church and in the performance of the mass ritual. If you have an interest in helping our faith community in this way, please contact Gabrielle Kirkman for more information: gsscolari@cox.net or 949-683-1567.

The Altar Guild needs a helping set of hands

The linen group is looking for a few volunteers to wash 4 Altar Server albs once a month. Once the albs are retrieved from the church, light laundering is all that is needed, at your home. If you have a few hours, once a month to help out, please contact:

Anne Stokes at astokes2002@hotmail.com or leave a message at my cell 949-500-6702.

Ushers Needed for Weekend Masses

Please prayerfully consider serving as an usher at the weekend Mass you normally attend. Whether you’re single or a couple, male or female, you are needed and can choose to serve once a month or more often.

Ushers welcome and help seat parishioners and strangers who come to worship with us, collect and present the gifts, open doors, distribute bulletins, and provide assistance to those in the congregation. If you are willing to serve or have questions, please see a lead usher at Mass or the website for an usher application. If you have questions, please contact

Women’ Silent Retreat
Sacred Heart Retreat House
October 5 - 7

Have you ever had a desire to get away for a few days and spend some time alone with God? Or just have a few days rest to renew your tired mind, body and spirit or time to refocus your life and priorities? This is an invitation for you to join the women of St. Edward the Confessor Church on our week-end silent retreat in October. We spend the week-end with the Carmelite Sisters at their beautiful grounds in Alhambra. Consider joining us…pray about it.

For more information and how to sign up please contact: Judy Claypool at 949-493-6617 or Val Melon 949-489-8378
1. Reminder that if you have owned your stock for 1 year or more you can gift it to the church without any tax liability.

   Contact your broker or Tom Leeman at the Parish Business Office for more information at 429-2874 or email: tleeman@stedward.com

2. Turn Your TAXABLE RMD (Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

   IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.

   Another way to donate to the Capital Campaign!

Reminder that you can donate to the Pastoral Center Campaign by using WeShare.
You can set up a period of 3 years or how many payments you want to complete your pledge.

For Assistance contact:
Tom Leeman at 429.2874 or email tleeman@stedward.com
