LAUNDRY LOVE

On the first Sunday of every month our St. Edward Social Justice Ministry meets at a local laundromat from noon to two-thirty to help our homeless and working poor neighbors do their laundry. Our St. Edward outreach ministry provides funding for the quarters and detergent which we provide for them to wash and dry their clothes and bedding. Among them are all the ingredients of the poor and marginalized: families with small children, alcoholics, addicts, the mentally ill, folks living in their cars while holding down jobs, veterans and quiet loners. We enjoy our time with these neighbors in need while the machines hum and spin away the dirt and detritus of living on the hard. We get to hear their stories of woe and humor, of loss and of surprising kindness. We find a distinct joy being with them for this time; a combination of gratitude and unity as Jesus continues to disguise himself among us.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Parish:

After completing one year of serving this community, I feel very blessed by God and loved by Him through you. I thank God for this great opportunity that grants me the ability to be with you and to celebrate our faith in the various moments, needs and celebrations together.

I am also thankful for the gift of life that God has given me and to have celebrated it with you last month. I thank you with all my heart for all the beautiful efforts, cards and gifts that you gave me, they are for me symbols of your affection. May God bless you abundantly.

I entrust myself to your prayers, asking that God may grant me the gift of wisdom and the opportunity to continue to learn English, rest assured that I try hard and am anxious to learn. God bless you today and always.

Fr. Marco Hernandez.
We Must Pray

Several weeks ago, a conversation got me thinking. Someone had been to a weekday Mass and had heard the name of a friend given as the intention of the Mass. Afterward, the person came to the parish office to ask if their friend was okay. As far as I knew, the friend was fine. But that got us talking about the fact that when we are asked to pray for someone, it’s easy to assume that something must be wrong with the person. In reality, we might be asked to pray for them because it’s their birthday or anniversary, or simply because it is a good and holy thing to support one another with our prayers. The Scriptures repeatedly remind us to pray for one another; this is one of the ways we fulfill the Lord’s commandment to love one another.

Jesus teaches us about prayer in the gospel of this weekend. This gives us a good motive to review the place of prayer in our lives. Four reasons for prayer are abbreviated in the word ACTS: Adoration, Contrition, Thanksgiving, and Supplication. The supplication (asking) may be for ourselves or for another; and sometimes our prayer for another is simply that God may bless them in every way.

In this spirit, I renew my pledge to pray for you and I humbly ask you to pray for me; and I hope all of us will pray for one another in all circumstances of daily life.

Gratefully yours,
Fr. Philip

Debemos Orar

Hace varias semanas, tuve una conversación con una persona que me hizo pensar. Alguien había asistido a una misa entre semana y escuchó el nombre de su amigo en la intención de la misa. Después, la persona vino a la oficina parroquial para preguntar si su amigo estaba bien. Por lo que yo sabía, que si, estaba bien. Y esto nos hizo hablar sobre el hecho de que cuando se nos pide orar por alguien, es fácil suponer que algo debe estar mal con la persona. En realidad, se nos puede pedir que oremos por ellos porque es su cumpleaños o aniversario, o simplemente porque es algo bueno y sagrado apoyarnos unos a otros con nuestras oraciones. Las Escrituras nos recuerdan repetidamente que oremos unos por otros; esta es una de las formas en que cumplimos el mandamiento del Señor de amarnos unos a los otros.

Jesús nos enseña acerca de la oración en el evangelio de este fin de semana. Esto nos da un buen motivo para pensar, que lugar tiene la oración en nuestras vidas? Hay cuatro razones para la oración, son las siguientes: Adoración, Contrición, Acción de Gracias y Súplica. La súplica (pedir) puede ser para nosotros mismos o para otros; y algunas veces nuestra oración por los demás es pedirle a Dios que los llene de bendiciones.

Con este espíritu, renuevo mi promesa de orar por ustedes y humildemente te pido que ores por mí; y espero que todos oremos unos por otros en todas las circunstancias de la vida diaria.

Con agradecimiento,
Padre Felipe

About the Lord’s Prayer

Our Daily Bread
To ask for our daily bread is to ask that our hungers be satisfied—all of them. To ask for bread, then, can be understood as a request that all our basic needs be met—the needs for shelter, food, clothing, and health care.

Forgiving and Forgiven
We are called to forgive the debts of others as we have received this same forgiveness from God.

Teaching on Prayer in the Sermon on the Mount
The key to prayer, he teaches, is faith in God’s power and trust in God’s love.
