Reverence for the Precious Blood

Before I arrived at St. Edward the Confessor and San Felipe de Jesús, a discussion had already begun among the parish clergy about the reception of Holy Communion under the form of the Precious Blood in the upstairs level of St. Edward the Confessor Church. It is not easy to carry a filled (or even partially filled) chalice up or down the stairs without spilling the Precious Blood. At the same time, we recognize that full participation in the Banquet of the Lord is most clearly symbolized by receiving Communion under both forms (consecrated host and consecrated wine).

Of course, each form of the Eucharist contains the fullness of the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. The symbolism is different, but the reality is the same. For this reason, and to preserve reverence for the Precious Blood, we have decided to give Communion under both forms on the ground level of the church, and to give Communion only under the form of the consecrated Host on the upstairs level. If you are accustomed to receiving Communion under both forms on the upstairs level of the church, you are welcome to come downstairs at Communion time or to consider sitting in the ground level of the church for all of Mass.

This change will be implemented sometime in the near future. Along with this, we will begin using new chalices which were donated by a generous parishioner. We sincerely hope that everyone will understand and appreciate the need for Eucharistic reverence that motivates both changes.

Gratefully yours,

Fr. Philip

Reverencia a la Sangre Preciosa

Antes de llegar a San Eduardo el Confesor y San Felipe de Jesús, ya había comenzado una discusión entre el clero parroquial sobre la recepción de la Sagrada Comunión bajo la forma de la Preciosa Sangre en el nivel superior de la Iglesia aquí en San Eduardo. No es fácil llevar el cáliz lleno (o incluso parcialmente lleno) para arriba y abajo de las escaleras sin derramar la Preciosa Sangre de Cristo. Al mismo tiempo, reconocemos que la plena participación en el Banquete del Señor se simboliza más claramente al recibir la Comunión bajo ambas formas (hostia consagrada y el vino consagrado).

Por supuesto, cada forma de la Eucaristía contiene la plenitud del Cuerpo, la Sangre, el Alma y la Divinidad de Jesucristo. El simbolismo es diferente, pero la realidad es la misma. Por esta razón, y para preservar la reverencia por la Sangre Preciosa de Cristo, hemos decidido dar la Comunión bajo ambas formas en la planta baja de la iglesia, y dar la Comunión solo bajo la forma de la Hostia consagrada en el nivel superior. Si está acostumbrado a recibir la Comunión bajo ambas formas en el nivel superior de la iglesia, puede bajar a la hora de la Comunión o considerar sentarse en el nivel bajo de la iglesia durante toda la Misa.

Este cambio se implementará en algún momento en el futuro. Junto con esto, comenzaremos a usar nuevos cálices que fueron donados por un feligrés muy generoso. Esperamos sinceramente que todos comprendan y aprecien la necesidad que hay en la reverencia Eucarística que motiva estos cambios.

Con Agradecimiento,

El Padre Felipe

By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.
